8. Number of surprise raids conducted by Squad: Daily

Other measures taken to prevent ragging: The hostel for first year students is separate with security and there is no entry of senior (second year) students into the hostel. The buses for the first year students and seniors are separate. Faculty and staff members also come in the same buses with the students. The canteen timing for first year students in the college is different than the timing for the second year (senior) students. The welcome ceremony for the first year students was conducted within two days of the commencement of the first year classes. Anti-ragging squad members visit different areas of the campus throughout the day. One Supervisor, one attendant, one sweeper, One Warden and another staff member stay in the boy's hostel for first year. The Chief Warden and the two Hostel Superintendents check the hostel frequently.

AICTE Regulations as per the Directives of Supreme Court and the Raghavan Committee Recommendations to the Supreme Court to prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging have been widely displayed in and around all the classrooms and the campus. All the senior students were counseled before the entry of the first year students on the evils of ragging and its consequences.
